The Morris County Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) invites middle and high school students to share their ideas on this year's topic. Please include a cover sheet with the student's name, address, phone, school, and grade with each essay. This information should not be on the essay pages. Winning entries will be published in the NOW newsletter and on the chapter website. Entries become property of Morris County NOW.

Students: Ensure your essay of no more than 500 words is postmarked or emailed by March 19, 2012. Please have a teacher or trusted friend proofread your entry. Winners will be contacted in April.
